

Brighton

The Charming Coastal City

Celebrated as one of the trendiest and most flamboyant cities in the UK, Brighton is a renowned seaside resort only an hour south of London, in East Sussex. With an iconic beach promenade, plenty of funky boutiques, a famous pier, eclectic architecture and plenty of sports, Brighton is a stunning location to learn English and get immersed in British culture.

With its unique identity as a bohemian capital, Brighton is home to a vast array of galleries, museums, street art, theatres and shops, all within walking distance of each other. There is a fun, carnival atmosphere on Brighton Pier, where there is a diverse selection of entertainment and great views of the seaside town.

Explore the maze of narrow alleyways "The Lanes", that are jam-packed with quirky designer stores nestled among restaurants, cafes and traditional pubs. Stroll down Sydney Street and discover vintage chic or explore Churchill Square to find famous brands.

Experience the English countryside with trips to the national parks, the chalk hills of South Downs and the magnificent white cliffs, accessible directly from the camp itself. Rich in entertainment, with beautiful landscapes as well as cultural and sports activities, Brighton is a unique destination to soak up the English language!
